BOTTLE MARKED "TNT" FOUND AT RADICAL OFFICE

Chemicals Easily Convertible Into Explosives Seized

MARTENS ON THE STAND

Says He Has Received $90,000
From Soviet Government For Work Here Since Last April

New York, Nov. 25. — A large quantity of chemicals which could be easily converted into explosives was found in a secret room in the headquarters of the United Russian Workers in East 15th street, raided late today by detectives attached to the bomb squad. One bottle which was found was labeled TNT.

The detectives who made the raid were armed with federal warrants for several men connected with the organization, but none of them were found and no arrests were made.

The bureau of mines in Washington will be asked to send a representative to examine the chemicals.

The detectives found three large boxes containing names thought to be the membership of the organization, as well as several copies of "Bread and Freedom," a Russian newspaper.

Martens Faces Legislative Probers.

New York, Nov. 25. — Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, who calls himself ambassador of the soviet government of Russia, admitted late today that he and Dudley Field Malone, former collector of the port of New York, $1,000 on Sept. 12 "for help in a commercial transaction." He told the joint legislative committee investigating radical activities that it was for advice in trying to arrange a $9,500,000 shipment of boots, meats and chemicals, to be paid for on delivery in Petrograd.

Martens denied he knew that Malone had formed and was forming "a corporation to do business with soviet Russia," and declared that his "embassy" was not specifically interested in such an organization. He did not know that Malone "had been speaking a half of the soviet government of Russia," either before or after he paid him the $1,000, he said.

Chief Work Is Propaganda.

Martens asserted in reply to questions by Attorney General Newton that 25 per cent of his activities here are devoted to propaganda for recognition to the Russian soviet government by the United States, or "publicity work to impress upon the American people that the Russian soviet form of government is desirable."

Inquiries based on the committee's announced effort to find out if Martens is or is not in reality chief of the communist radicals trying to spread revolution throughout the United States, brought no definite affirmative results today.

Martens said that since April he had received about $90,000 for his use here, all from the soviet government. Couriers brought as much as $20,000 at a time in secret and carried back correspondence the same way. He flatly refused to tell how they came and went, who they were, or where they could be found.

His last consignment of cash, amounting to $15,000, arrived two months ago. Like the others, he said, it was brought by messenger from Russia and deposited in banks and safe deposit vaults here.

He testified that the weekly payroll of his "embassy," including his own salary, totaled $1,200.

U. S. "Capitalistic" Government.

During a discussion of communist principles, Martens said that Lenin and Trotsky had receded somewhat from their former attitude in calling upon the workers of the world to rise against the bourgeoisie of all countries. He defined the government of the United States as "a democratic" and later as a "capitalistic" one.

He said the Russian soviet was not trying to fight "capital" in the United States but wished to make a compromise with it.

"Temporary?" he was asked.

"Why should it be temporary?" he replied.

At the beginning of the hearing, Martens said he wished to read into the record a correction of transcript of previous testimony. He finished by reading a statement intimating that he was being examined only with the desire to bring out half-truths and to misrepresent his position.

Before calling Martens before the committee, the committee at its executive session decided to submit to the state department a transcript of his testimony with a view to having him deported. The committee announced it intended to bring out "a source of Martens' funds and to show they were being expended."

Radicals Start Hunger Strike.

New York, Nov. 25. — A hunger strike was coupled with a "sit-down" by 75 radicals at Ellis Island in an effort to have removed an X-ray separating them from their relatives. The barrier was "brought down" after several days of protest.

CABINET DEADLOCKED ON MINE WAGE ISSUE

Another Attempt Will Be Made Today To Effect
Settlement With Aid of Fuel Administrator Garfield

COUNTRY FACES CRISIS

In Scores of Cities, Number of Industries In Operation Is Falling, While Nation's Coal Bin Continues to Diminish

Washington, Nov. 25. — President Wilson's cabinet tonight seemed as hopelessly deadlocked on the question of a wage increase in the bituminous coal industry as the miners and operators whose troubles it was trying to adjust.

After a six-hour session, the cabinet, which took up the wage scale agreement where the operators and miners left off last week, adjourned until tomorrow, when another attempt, with the aid of Fuel Administrator Garfield, will be made to agree upon a pay scale that will satisfy the mine workers and owners and the people in all sections of the country who are clamoring for normal production of coal.

Chief Points of Difference.

The proper basis of calculating the proposed wage advance and the ratio of dividing the consequent increase in cost of production of coal between the operators and the public, are understood to have been the points of difference between the cabinet members. Dr. Garfield took issue with Secretary of Labor Wilson as to the method of applying the figures accepted by both.

Dr. Garfield declined to say whether progress had been made, but one member of the cabinet declared prospects of an agreement were "not hopeless."

Secretary Wilson's estimate that the cost of living had increased 79 per cent over 1914 was accepted, it was understood, but a difference of opinion arose as to the application of this and other figures in computing an increase in wages.

Secretary Glass said tonight that he might have "some very interesting figures" tomorrow, emphasizing that they had been compiled for the public and not for the cabinet. He declined to say whether they were the income tax returns received by the treasury department on excess profits from the coal industry.

Significance was attached to this announcement in view of the fact that the amount of profit made by the coal companies during the last two years, and the percentage of increase in any possible wage advance which the operators might be asked to bear, have been the most bitterly disputed points in the controversy.

McAdoo's Statement Discussed.

The statement of former Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, charging that some coal concerns made enormous profits during his incumbency, came in for discussion at the cabinet meeting, it was learned, but no one would say what form the discussion took.

The Lever food control act was not mentioned at the meeting, it was said. Owing to the time consumed on other matters, it was not believed that the cabinet discussed methods of enforcing its decision in case the verdict should not be acceptable to workers or mine owners.

Director General Hines attended the sessions, but declined to say what took place.

Before the meeting this morning, Attorney General Palmer said that if the figures as to operators' profits given yesterday by Mr. McAdoo were correct, it was not likely Dr. Garfield would permit an increased price for coal.

In a statement bearing on this issue, the operators said that "conditions in 1917 were abnormal," but that as Mr. McAdoo was "ignorant" of conditions in 1918 and 1919, his message "carries no weight and requires no answer." The operators said they welcomed an investigation of current tax returns, and that they had been ing clothes with friends and after some visitors had passed revolvers to the radicals.

In a letter to the house immigration committee which is in New York investigating the immigration and deportation system, they reiterated that they would not attend deportation hearings held by immigration inspectors and would hunger strike in addition. Three calls to the dining room were unanswered. Drinking water and oratory had been their only diet tonight for 24 hours.

About half a dozen voluntarily attended hearings, but joined in the hunger strike. One attended a hearing but refused to answer questions.

Favor Berkman's Deportation.

Washington, Nov. 25. — The immigration bureau's recommendation that Alexander Berkman, by his own admission an anarchist, be deported, was approved tonight by the department of labor.

The record in the case of Emma Goldman, it was stated, has reached the bureau, and is proceeding rapidly to a decision.

DEATH SENTENCE FOR ANGELES AND TWO COMPANIONS

Former Villa Leader Is Convicted of Rebelling Against Carranza

HE ASKS FOR CLEMENCY

Praises America and Americans
During Address to Army
Court Trying Him

Juarez, Mexico, Nov. 25. — General Felipe Angeles and his two companions, Major Nestor Enciso DeArce and Soldier Antonio Trillo, captured near Parral, Chihuahua, November 15, by Major Gabino Sandoval, were found guilty by a court martial at Chihuahua City this morning and sentenced to be shot at noon today, according to information received by Judge Gonzales Medina, of the Mexican federal court, here this afternoon. The formal charge against the prisoners was that of rebellion against the Carranza government.

The sentence was not carried out, it was said, because the attorney for Angeles appealed to the federal court at Juarez and the supreme court of Mexico at Mexico City for a stay of execution by applying for a writ of habeas corpus.

Carranza, Too, Can Save Him.

The Juarez court denied the appeal. Judge Medina holding his court had no jurisdiction, and the supreme court was the only tribunal which could act. Besides the supreme court, President Carranza also could save the condemned man with a pardon.

It was said by court officials that if the supreme court grants the application it simply means that courts will only review the proceedings of the court martial and that if no errors are found it will mean carrying out of the sentence unless Carranza intervenes. Carranza already has petitions seeking clemency from General Angeles.

General Angeles, intellectual leader of the Villista movement and famous throughout the world as an artillery expert, went to trial yesterday morning. For three hours he faced the military court of four Carranza generals and defended the actions of himself and his companions. Two of the four men captured with him already have been executed by Carranza soldiers. The soldier, Trillo, on trial with Angeles, is but 17 years old.

Angeles Praises America.

Couriers brought the story of the trial to the border tonight. Attempts to telegraph information failed.

During his address to the court, General Angeles praised America and Americans. In this connection he was reported to have said:

"The Mexican people always have viewed with dislike and apprehension the great American nation; always being brought up to believe their powerful neighbors are harboring thoughts of our conquest. Nothing is more erroneous.

"Our great neighboring nation, headed by its great president, Mr. Wilson, has only the kindest feeling for us and our welfare. It is often said here that the American army is a nonentity. Though true that its former army was of little importance, its present army is one of the greatest in existence. It embodies all of the flower of youth, clean blood of the nation."

Quit Villa in 1916.

Angeles quit the Villa movement before the Columbus, New Mexico, raid of 1916. In referring to the raid during the trial he said:

"A most dastardly attempt against the United States was made in the attack upon Columbus. A town belonging to a great friendly nation was attacked; men, women and children were murdered, and other outrages committed. We showed ourselves to the whole world—for while the American is clean in mind, body and environment, we are absolutely and equivocally opposite.

"General Pershing, whom the majority regards only as a trespasser on our soil, is one of the foremost generals of this day."

Ever since General Angeles was brought to Chihuahua he had considered his fate settled, according to those who visited his cell. To all he said his main hope and thought was to say publicly "something that would not leave my memory blackened and dishonor my children."

The reduction can and ought to be carried much further as the net reduction does not affect industrial coal, which remains at what is declared to be an unreasonable price.

Frank Hodges, secretary of the miners' federation, says that the coal used by domestic consumers amounts to only fifteen per cent of the total and that its reduction by ten shillings amounts only eleven million pounds of the surplus money obtained through the July increase of six shillings, there being still forty million pounds at the government's disposal for a further reduction.

The laborite members of the house of commons and their supporters intend, it is said, to carry on an agitation against the government until this alleged surplus has been applied to lowering the price all around and especially on industrial coal.

GENERAL RAIL STRIKE IS NOT CONTEMPLATED

Brotherhood Chiefs Deny Reports That They Were Considering Calling Big Walk-Out at Secret Sessions in Cleveland

NO VOTE ON OVERTIME

But Convention Accepts Hines' Other Proposal, Affecting Crews Held Away From Home Terminals

Chicago, Nov. 25.—Reports that national leaders of the four railway brotherhoods, in session at Cleveland, were holding secret discussions as to whether a strike of railway workers in the United States should be called on December 1, and which gained wide circulation and considerable credence in Chicago railway union circles, were denied tonight by W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Trainmen, and by Timothy Shea, acting president of the Brotherhood of Firemen and Enginemen. President Lee, however, admitted having received a telegram from the Kansas City local saying that the trainmen and yardmen there had decided to strike tomorrow, and that he had warned them that if they thought they were "bigger than the United States government" he had no advice to give them.

Locals Insistent on Strike.

Knowledge of the Kansas City situation and of similar pressure from other locals is what gave impetus to the reports which spread so rapidly here tonight.

Other union officials in Chicago stated tonight that so far as they were aware the secret conference in Cleveland had not yet reached the point where motions on the strike actually had been presented, but discussion concerning it today, according to their information, was favorable to the project and that the tieup could be expected within three days. A similar announcement was made late today at the convention of the newly-organized labor party here.

Buffalo, Detroit, Pittsburgh and St. Louis were declared to have been among the cities whose locals were particularly insistent that a strike be called in view of the statements to the effect that the general advances in the pay of railway workers could not be considered at this time. The 14 locals of Chicago railwaymen, it was said, voted unanimously in favor of a strike and a resolution asking for a strike decision had been sent to W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

Cleveland, Nov. 25. — A statement tonight by L. E. Sheppard, president of the Order of Railroad Conductors, denied "any secret meetings here today between the brotherhood chiefs on a general strike," and added:

"All we discussed at today's meetings was Mr. Hines' proposal for time and a half for overtime work. Of course, we are all getting telegrams and letters from our locals urging us to stand pat. There was no discussion either by the chiefs in secret or in the meeting, of a general strike, only as a speaker would make passing reference to strikes in general. Of course, I cannot say what will be the action of the meeting if the time and a half proposal is defeated."

Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Railroad Engineers, could not be reached tonight.

No Vote on Hines' Overtime Offer.

Cleveland, Nov. 25. — The 500 general chairmen of the four great railroad brotherhoods, called in conference here by the four chief executives to consider the offer of Director General Hines granting time and one-half for overtime in slow freight service and a uniform 16-hour rule for crews held away from home terminals, today voted to accept the "away from home rule," but did not reach a vote on the overtime proposition.

"EVERY BITE A UNION BITE" IS DENTAL UNION'S SLOGAN

New York, Nov. 25. — "Every bite a union bite," is the slogan of the dental workers' union announced today. Samuel S. Stoedel, its organizer, said that a vote would be taken on the question of a general walkout to force recognition of the union. Unless employers yield he declared, not a new store tooth will move in the metropolitan.

"Now is the time for friends of union labor to show their colors by wearing none but union made teeth and by insisting upon the union label," Stoedel said. The label, he explained, will not be offensively conspicuous, but will be easily recognizable. Higher wages and shorter hours are incidental demands.

BACKBONE OF STRIKE BROKEN.

New York, Nov. 25. — Officials of the International Printing Pressmen's and Assistants' union expressed confidence tonight that the backbone of the printers' strike in this city had been broken, based on the large number of applications for re-enrollment received at headquarters and lack of enthusiasm shown by the "seconding" locals in their referendum being held today.

ment by Injunction"

CONVENTION ADJOURNS

Work of Organization is Completed—To Nominate Candidates Next Summer

Chicago, Nov. 25.—Work of organizing the new labor party of the United States was completed tonight with the adoption of a lengthy declaration of principles and election of a national committee which will consist of one man and one woman from each state. Headquarters for the party will be established in Chicago. The convention adjourned tonight.

The organization will call a national convention next summer to nominate candidates for president and vice president. In the meantime, the leaders of the movement will organize in the different states. A monthly tax of two cents per capita will be levied on the membership to finance the party.

Would Abolish U. S. Senate

Included in the declaration of principles are the following:

Abolition of the United States senate.

Election of federal judges by popular vote for terms not exceeding four years.

International solidarity of labor.

Maximum hours of labor for men, and women, to be eight hours a day and 44 hours a week.

Minimum wages for workers to be fixed by law.

Old age, unemployment, and sick pensions.

Government to own and operate the banking business of the country.

Condemnation of government by injunction.

Condemnation of universal military training and conscription.

The convention adopted a resolution condemning the peace treaty and league of nations covenant as at present drafted for the reason that it did not conform with President Wilson's 14 points and was not in the interest of the working classes throughout the world.

No Decision on Prohibition.

The party refrained from taking a positive stand on the prohibition question, but after several hours of heated discussion a compromise measure was adopted which provided for the appointment tomorrow of a special committee of three to investigate the effect of the prohibition constitutional amendment. This committee will report at the next national convention.

A number of wet delegates withdrew from the convention, because they interpreted the action as a victory for the drys.

The convention approved the Plumb plan for government ownership of railroads and the co-operative movement to reduce the high cost of living.

Resolutions calling for the establishment of a soviet government in the United States and advocating the abolishment of the United States supreme court were voted down. A resolution demanding that the United States government recognize the Irish republic was adopted. Others included:

Opposition to a declaration of war against Mexico.

Demand that negroes be given political, industrial and economic equality.

Condemnation of mob violence even when participated in by organizations and individuals professing to be inspired by motives of patriotism.

NEW YORK'S SOLDIER MEMORIAL TO COST ABOUT $10,000,000

New York, Nov. 25.—Final plans were adopted today for the erection of Victory Hall, New York city's memorial to her soldiers, sailors and marines who took part in the world war. According to the plans, the hall will be the largest building of its kind in the world and it is proposed to make it an established fact before the end of next year.

The building will cost between $5,000,000 and $7,000,000 and the land $2,000,000. The site selected is in Pershing Square, facing the Grand Central station.

CONFESSES MURDERING WOMAN

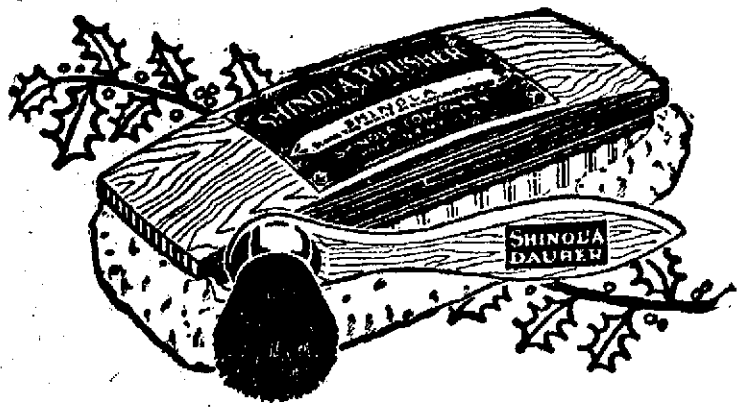

Rochester, Nov. 25. — Paul Lo Gindick of Buffalo today confessed in detail to District Attorney Lott and the police how he seized Mrs. John Fichera from behind in her home here Tuesday last, clapping his hand over her mouth, and cut her throat. He added that when she fell, he backed her throat to make sure of her death.

Lo Gindick, Charles Lipani of Buffalo, and the woman's husband are under arrest here for the crime. The Buffalo men say Fichera loved them to kill his wife when he found letters to her from other men.

TRADING ON THE STOCK EXCHANGE AGAIN DULL

Little Evidence of Public Participation—Entire Bond Market is Reactionary

New York, Nov. 25. — Trading on the stock exchange today was again relatively dull and professional, there being little evidence of the public participation which succeeded the recent reaction.

The market drifted aimlessly but mainly upward, especially among those issues which experienced the greatest shrinkage in the several liquidating movements of the past fortnight.

There were exceptions to the advance, of which rails, coppers and local utilities were the most conspicuous examples. Reasons for the backwardness of these groups were so obvious as to excite little comment.

Easy money, reduced tension in the foreign exchange situation, and other factors which served in the price readjustment of the last few days, were again operative, but in more moderate degree.

Advices touching upon the course of the coal conference at Washington were less hopeful in tenor, but the various coal-carrying shares reflected this only in minor measure.

Pools seemed to have little difficulty in advancing the motors and their subsidiaries; also steels, equipments, oils, tobaccos and leathers. General Motors was the outstanding feature at an extreme rise of 29 points, gains elsewhere ranging from 3 to 10 points.

Several ordinarily-obscure or dormant industrials in the steel division displayed unusual activity and strength, but many gains suffered partial or entire cancellation on realizing for profit in the later dealings.

in "ROSE O' THE RIVER"

A Paramount Picture

Whether you demanded thrills, heart-throbs or laughs in your pictures, you'll get just what you want in "Rose O' The River." It's the story of an unsophisticated little country girl whose life became wrapped in the tangled skeins spun by an arch-villain.

He was everything that a slick "city feller" should be. She was as unsophisticated as any sulking, lurking villain could ask. But what she did to the "villain!" Don't ask questions! Just come to see. You'll be glad you did.

Without question the best picture Lila Lee has yet appeared in. Full of the thrills, heart-throbs and joy that appeals to each of us. Try to come! Early.

GOOD WORD FOR THE BAKER.

In these days when everybody is accused of profiteering, and it seems easy in so many instances to fix the goods upon the party accused, it is a pleasure to say a good word for one abused class of producers, who because they come directly in touch with the consumer have probably had to endure more than their share of fault-finding. These are the bakers.

Julius H. Barnes is the United States wheat director in New York. He is doubtless more intimately in touch than any one else in the country with the breadstuffs proposition, and what he says may be taken every time as solid fact. Since 1913, says Mr. Barnes, the price of wheat to June, 1919, had advanced 166 per cent. In the same period the semi-manufactured product—flour—had advanced 27 per cent, and the finished product—bread—had advanced 74 per cent.

When one considers that every expense for labor and machinery and general overhead has advanced as much for the baker as for anybody else, it is evident that there is no reason to put him in the profiteering class. All honor to him therefore, and may his conscience be as light as his bread and his sleep as sweet as his doughnuts!

SATISFACTORY BALANCE SHEET.

American exports in October, 1919, were valued at $632,000,000, a gain of $35,000,000 over September and of $130,000,000 over October of the previous year, according to a statement just issued by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Department of Commerce. Exports for the 10 months ended with October are placed at $6,501,000,000, an increase of $1,440,000,000 as compared with the corresponding period of 1918.

October imports totaled $416,000,000, a falling off of $20,000,000 from the high mark of September, but an increase of $169,000,000 over October of last year. For the 10 months ended with October, imports amounted to $3,113,000,000, a gain of $643,000,000 over the similar period of last year. This figure for the first 10 months of the current calendar year is higher than that recorded for any previous full calendar year.

BARRELS FOR BLUNDON SCHOOL.

Residents of Oneonta Solicited to Send Supplies for Negro Children.

For several years boxes and barrels have been sent from Oneonta to the Blundon school in Louisiana. Those who are interested in sending this year, from the Methodist Episcopal church, W. C. T. U., or from any source, are asked to make generous contributions of clothing, especially for children, shoes, thread, pins, needles, buttons, used picture cards, garments to be made over, new cloth of any length, or in fact anything that could be utilized in such an institution.

A recent communication says: "The boxes and barrels do a world of good. Don't stop sending them." Over 200 pupils were enrolled in September, and by this time the number has greatly increased. Look over your laid-away stores and select as liberally as possible for this worthy cause. Gifts suitable for Christmas would be greatly appreciated.

Send or bring to Mrs. C. J. Westcott, 49 Elm street, this week, so that barrels may soon be on their way.

W. C. T. U. Packs Baskets.

Tuesday morning, at the Woman's club rooms, the ladies of the W. C. T. U. packed 23 Thanksgiving baskets for shut-ins and deserving families, under the direction of the Flower Mission department, Mrs. Frank Wells superintendent. Tastefully decorated on the outside, the baskets were filled within with fruit, cakes, candy and jellies. They will be distributed today. The ladies of the W. C. T. U. have packed baskets annually at Thanksgiving instead of at Christmas when so many other organizations are doing the same.

In the afternoon a meeting was held at 2:30 in the club rooms with a fair attendance. The topic for the afternoon was, "Counting Our Blessings." Mrs. Van Patten, Evangelistic superintendent, gave a bible reading on the text, "In Everything Give Thanks." She spoke of the gratitude of the society this year for prohibition and for peace. Mrs. C. C. Wallace read in a pleasing manner a selection from the book, "Aunt Jane of Kentucky." The next meeting will be held December 10th.

Graduates at Brooklyn Hospital.

The Brooklyn Eagle of last Friday gives an account of the graduating exercises of the Training School for Nurses of the Jewish hospital of that city, an institution which despite its name is non-sectarian and makes no distinction of religion or race. Among the twenty members of the graduating class was Mrs. Katherine Blake VanAubrey, a daughter of Mrs. J. L. Blake of 14 Kearney street, this city. Mrs. VanAubrey, rather, Wallace Blake, of Oneonta, attended the graduation exercises.

HEALTH PROBLEM IN OTSEGO

What the County is Doing to Stamp Out Tuberculosis—Chairmen and Committees Named for Red Cross Seal Drive—Hon. L. P. Butts County Chairman.

Due to war conditions, influenza and other influences, the tuberculosis situation has assumed a new importance.

Last year in Otsego county there were twenty-eight deaths due to tuberculosis as against 26 the year before and as against our lowest death rate in 1914, which was twenty-two. Besides this there were some deaths from influenza which had tuberculosis as the secondary cause.

Investigation has shown there are ten living cases for each death. Accordingly we have approximately 280 living cases in Otsego. This is undoubtedly true as we have about fifty cases in Oneonta alone.

In the first draft call 36.5 per cent of the men of Otsego county were rejected because they were not physically fit. This is more than one out of every three. Eighteen of these men were rejected on account of tuberculosis and these were men, it must be remembered, who were between the ages of 21 and 31 years just when they should be in their prime.

This shows us that as a county we have a health problem. In order to have Otsego the best county, we must have the people in it up to standard physically.

We are spending a great deal of money now which is not accomplishing half what it could if we but put a little more with it. For instance we are spending much money for the medical inspection of school children; but, excepting in Oneonta, this is being practically thrown away as there is no nurse to follow up the finding and give assistance.

What we need in Otsego county is more nursing service and a means of transportation for the nurses. Besides this we wish to continue the occasional clinics, which are proving to be of such benefit, and a program of health education. In order to do this with the success with which Otsego is accustomed we need $6,000. This is a relatively small sum if each will take the seals or bonds which are being offered him.

The Red Cross Christmas Seal campaign to secure these funds has been well organized. Hon. Lavern P. Butts who took the county "over the top" with such splendid success in the Victory Loan drive is chairman for the county. He has been appointed by Governor Smith, who on account of the growing importance of the tuberculosis situation is assisting the State Tuberculosis Committee in their efforts to secure funds. Clifford R. Morris is chairman for Oneonta and Frank D. Potter for West Oneonta. Harry W. Lee is director of publicity.

Meeting of Ladies' Aid Society.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Baptist church held a regular monthly meeting Tuesday at 2:30 in the church parlors with an attendance of about 25 people. After a short devotional program, officers were elected for the coming year beginning January 1st, who are as follows: President—Mrs. I. W. Blend. Secretary—Mrs. A. E. Nye. Treasurer—Mrs. D. A. Dieffendorf. The president appoints the vice president at the beginning of the year. After the election of officers, sewing was done for the Judson Memorial church in New York.

Plentiful contributions were also received for the barrel which will be sent to Mrs. Blundon's school for colored children. Two of the teachers in the school, Miss Knowles and Miss Snell, are graduates of the Oneonta Normal in the class of 1899.

In Attendance at Recital.

Among those in attendance at the recital last evening from outside the city were noticed Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Nichols and Supervisor-Elect and Mrs. Porter R. Hadsell of Worcester; Attorney James P. Friery and a party of friends from Schenectady, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Ford of Otsego, County Treasurer and Mrs. B. G. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Green of Cooperstown, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Tyson of Unadilla and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Burnside of Sidney.

"Safety and Service."

The above words are the slogan of the Second National bank of Cooperstown, a condensed copy of whose latest statement appears in another column. The fact that the report shows deposits exceeding $2,251,000 is evidence of what depositors think about as regards safety; that its loans and discounts exceed $785,000 is some indication of what it does for the business men of its territory in the way of service. A perusal of the figures of the report will be of interest.

Dime Social This Evening.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Free Baptist church will hold a dime social at the home of Miss Helen Elliott, 22 Valleyview street Wednesday evening, November 26, at 8 o'clock. The public cordially invited.

Hager, deceased, late of the city of Oneonta, in said county, that they are required to exhibit the same, with vouchers therefor, to the undersigned and administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, at the law office of Frank C. REPORT OF OPERATIONS.

Satisfactory Figures Filed With Public Service by Trolley Co.

Albany, November 25.—The Southern New York Power and Railway Corporation, operating between Mohawk and Oneonta, in its report for the quarter ending September 30th, filed with the Public Service Commission, Second District, shows:

Railway operating revenues, $110,346
Railway operating expenses, 32,700

Net operating revenue, $77,646
Taxes assignable to railway operations, 4,055

Operating income, $73,591
Non operating income, 1,399

Gross income, $74,990
Deductions from gross income, Interest, funded debt, $13,354
Interest, unfunded debt, 4,909
Other deductions, 143

Total deductions from gross income, $18,405
Net corporate income, $56,585

In view of the fact that four out of five other railways filing their reports on the same day showed a net corporate loss from operations, the above figures, though the net income is not large, may be considered fairly satisfactory. Moreover, they are evidence of the care and good judgment with which the Southern New York corporation is operated.

A RECITAL WORTH WHILE

Miss Farrar and Mr. Harrison Delight Patrons of Elks' Course with Varied and Pleasing Program—Next Attraction the Columbian Male Quartet

That the large and representative audience greatly enjoyed the joint recital given at the Oneonta theatre last evening by Amparito Farrar and Charles Harrison, the second number of the course provided through the enterprise of the Elks—was well attested at the end of the generously long and varied program, when after the two artists had finished the duet "Oh, That We Two Were Maying," practically everyone in the audience remained seated and applauded until they reappeared and rendered "Will You Walk With Me"—a demonstration of keen appreciation quite unusual in this city, where much too frequently the last number is marred by many replacing wraps and leaving ere it is finished.

Miss Farrar, whose records had gained for her a coterie of admirers, at once captivated the audience not only with her fine lyric soprano voice and its exceptional qualities but by her winsome and unaffected naturalness—a charm which many of the vocalists of note so often lose early in their career. Few if any regretted when she substituted for her first number, "Bird Song" from "I Pagliacci," a more popular aria from Madam Butterfly. She did admirably with her Spanish and French songs, notable among them being Clavellito and Hymn to the Sun, though her "Venetian Song" by Tosti, and "The Heart Call" by Vanderpool, were more appreciated, doubtless because in English, and her several Chinese Mother Goose Rhymes were gems of a popular character. Her rendition of "Golden Crown," a refined negro melody, was per excellent.

Oneontans may have heard a tenor surpassing Harrison but his name and his voice does not now come to mind and it would be difficult indeed to conceive of one possessing a finer voice or a voice with wider capabilities. He sang masterly the operatic arias, the beautiful old ballads and folk songs, all with equal felicity and effectiveness. While perhaps many may have considered his most pretentious and successful renditions to have been Aubade "Le Roi d'Ys," Aria from Faust and "Under a Blazing Star," none were more keenly enjoyed than "When You Look in the Heart of a Rose," or "An Old Refrain," both substitutions, while "Christ in Flanders" received perhaps the most generous and prolonged applause. He sang "The End of a Perfect Day" as an encore number by request, and it was an inspiration indeed. Mr. Harrison's return on February 17th as first tenor with the Columbian Stellar Quartet, the third number of the same course, will be anticipated by all patrons.

The only discordant notes of the evening were sounded by a squeaky piano pedal, which annoyed Mr. Grisselle, the exceedingly capable accompanist, and some noisy steam pipes, the latter, however, being quickly remedied by Manager Moore, but the recalcitrant pedal refused to yield to the heroic treatment administered by Mr. Grisselle. Both probably vexed the artists much more than the audience for they served not to mar the keen enjoyment of all appreciative listeners.

KILLED WALKING TRACKS

William H. Irish Meets Instant Death When Struck by Fast Passenger Train Near Sidney.

William H. Irish of this city was instantly killed about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, near the railroad bridge which crosses the Susquehanna river, some distance west of Sidney, by a D. & H. passenger train. The exact manner in which the unfortunate man was killed is not known, but it is supposed that in crossing from one track to another he stepped directly in front of the fast approaching passenger train and was killed instantly. Irish was employed by the bridge department of the Delaware and Hudson company and had been working with other employees of the company repairing an abutment on the bridge which crosses the river nearly two miles west of the village of Sidney. The repairmen had placed a flag which cautioned trains to slow down when approaching the bridge, and it is thought that he was walking down the tracks to remove the flag at the time of his death.

The deceased was born at Fly Creek, April 19, 1849, and spent much of his life on a farm near that village, moving to this city about 15 years ago. He was well known in this city, having been employed at carpenter work much of the time. He was also employed by the Oneonta Department store and of late by the Delaware and Hudson company. All who knew him respected him highly and his many friends will regret very much to learn of his untimely end.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Lynn Collins of this city; three brothers and one sister, Charles Irish, and Mrs. Addie Edgett of Fly Creek, Albert Irish of Jordanville, and Rassel Irish of Laurens; and three grandchildren, Clifford W., Bernard and Gerald L. Collins.

Further notice as to funeral arrangements will appear in tomorrow's Star.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Edith M. Wilbur.

Friends here have just received news of the death of Mrs. Edith M. Wilbur at Eagle Lake, Cal., last month from an attack of pneumonia.

The maiden name of the deceased was Edith M. Wilbur, and her marriage necessitated only the change of one letter. She was born at Cooperstown on July 11, 1864, and was at the time of her death 55 years of age.

She leaves, besides her husband, A. H. Wilbur, three sisters, Mrs. Blanche Murphy of Middlefield, Mrs. Bernice Stiles of Cooperstown, and Mrs. Esther Saxton of Westville; also two brothers, J. Carl and Lewis Wilbur, both of Cooperstown. Early in life Mrs. Wilbur united with the Methodist church, and at the time of her death was a member of Simpson Memorial church of Minneapolis, Minnesota.

To those who became acquainted with her during her life, a noble character was revealed, a character marked by charitable attitudes, by sympathetic interests. With her the kind word was born of the loving thought, sincere and wholesome in its universal application. These friends will miss her sadly.

What other phonograph dares this test?

DID you ask some one about the Edison Tone-Test recital given last Monday in the Oneonta Theatre? The startled audience heard Leola Lucey's living voice flood the packed house. It then heard the New Edison match that voice, even unto its finest variation of shading and feeling. Any one who was present will tell you.

The voice of the living artist and its RE-CREATION by the New Edison can not be told apart.

It is no idle phrase that you can enjoy Case, Middleton, Hempel, Matzenauer, Spalding—in your own home. The New Edison brings all that the great artist can bring, except his physical presence. It is the phonographic triumph of the age.
